

Simon, E. 1903. Descriptions d'arachnides nouveaux de Madagascar, faisant partie des collections du Muséum. Bull. Mus. hist. nat. Paris 9: 134.

Emplesiogonus scutulatus, nov. sp. — ♂ long. 2,5 millim.

Cephalothorax antice albo-testaceus, utrinque atque ad marginem fusco-variatus et macula media magna nigro-castanea subtrapeziformi, linea tenui alba divisa, notatus, postice nigro-castaneus, utrinque ad angulum tuberculis parvis binis albis armatus, subtiliter rugosus et albido-pilosus. Abdomen breve, supra duriusculum, fulvum, antice utrinque late albo-marginatum, postice transversim albo-striatum et utrinque leviter infuscatum, subtus fusco-testaceum. Chelæ nigrae, antice albo-maculatæ. Partes oris sternumque nigra. Pedes breves, pallide flavidi, subpellucetes, minutissime fusco-variati. Pedes-maxillares breves, pallide flavidi, tibia tarsoque fusco-castanei, patella parva convexa, tibia patella brevior sed latiore, apophysi magna, articulo longiore, recta et conica, extus armata, taro ovato, bulbo simplici, convexo. — Sinus Antongil dictus (Mocquerys).